

5TH ANNUAL YAKAMA NATION LIBRARY MULTI MEDIA WORKSHOP

July 21st - 25th 2014

Rediscover Yakama Through Film & Art

Overview

Yakama tribal histories and values are at risk of being lost . In an effort to reconnect Yakama members with cultural teachings, the Multi Media Club participates in cultural explorations of tribal histories, folktales and philosophies.

The overall mission of the Multi Media Club is to reinvigorate interest in Yakama traditional values, history, and language by utilizing modern technology and multimedia platforms.

For the past four years youth have interviewed and documented tribal elders and leaders for the Multi Media Workshop. Media Professionals lend their skills to local students in the process of producing documentary films, music, and full stage productions.

Featured Mentors at Multi Media Workshop

We are excited to announce the return of Red Eagle Soaring, and the troupe will be partnering with Yakama Nation Library's own Coyote Tales Storytellers. Red Eagle Soaring is an Native American/ Alaskan Native non profit organization founded in 1990 that serves the Native and multicultural communities of Western Washington with a strong Youth Theatre Program, offering drama workshops and performance projects throughout the year.

In addition to local mentors, Paper Rocket Productions have expressed interest in contributing their expertise to this years' documentary films. Paper Rocket Productions was established in early 2011 after it had produced a short film entitled, "The Rocket Boy" which was an Official Selection for the 2011 Sundance Film Festival.
