Halloween Coloring Contest

Yakama Nation Library's Annual Coloring Contest Returns. Young students can enter to win a small gift this month from YNL staff. When students enter the coloring contest, their entry will be on display throughout the month of October, leading up to Halloween.

On Tuesday, October 28th, 2014 (3 days before Halloween), winners will be announced. Winning categories will include:

- First Place Winner for the First best picture
- First runner up for Second best picture
- Second runner up Third best picture
- People's Choice winner

Of course all participants will receive a small token prize for entering. In order to enter a child's picture into the coloring contest, a parent or guardian will need to register their student into the contest by providing contact information to arrange award pickup if selected. A blind selection panel will determine winners prior to the announcement. Also, students are welcome to enter multiple pictures.

Reading Recommendation:

Alice in Zombieland

Had anyone told Alice Bell that her entire life would change course between one heartbeat and the next, she would have laughed. Blissful to tragic, innocent to ruined? Please. But that's all it took, one heartbeat. A blink, a breath, a second and everything she knew and loved was gone.

Her father was right the monsters are real.

Check out Gina Showalter's zombie adventure, although not an adaptation of the Lewis Carrol classic, a gripping intro to the White Rabbit Chronicles.
